

Yakima County Republican Central Committee
Precinct Committee Officer - Appointment Agreement

The chairman of the Yakima County Republican Central Committee may appoint individuals to serve as Precinct Committee Officers in open precincts.

Requirements

You are asking to be appointed to the position of Republican Precinct Committee Officer (PCO). In order to be a PCO you must be a registered voter and reside in the precinct for which you are requesting appointment. You must have demonstrated your commitment to our government by voting in the last four elections, and pledge to vote in all elections while holding the position of PCO.

Responsibilities

As a PCO you are the official grassroots of the Republican Party in your precinct. You have the responsibility of working to ensure the election of Republicans to public office by; identifying and recruiting Republican voters in your precinct, actively supporting the Central Committee by attending Central Committee events, when asked, assist with the planning and coordination of those events, and when called upon hold a caucus in your precinct.

Privileges

As a PCO you are a voting member of the Yakima County Republican Central Committee and entitled to participate in its business, events, and proceedings when it meets as a body. If you participate in your precinct caucus you become an automatic delegate to the County Convention when held.
